

How can I use the gift of wisdom to prepare for the JOURNEY?

OUR FOCUS

St. Isidore provides a safe, positive, and nurturing environment so that persons of every background feel included and engaged here.

Our doors are open. We reach out to those who are seeking God's grace and meet them where they are.

St. Isidore is a strong, passionate place of faith. Together we will build up our community and share it with those around us.

connect with us

Be sure to like us on Facebook & check in when you come to Mass so if someone is searching for a church home, they know that there is a friendly face at St. Isidore.

FR. RON'S RAMBLINGS

frron@stisidore.church

We have recently welcomed Mei Markel to our parish team as our Creative Marketing Designer. Mei, who introduces herself to us on page 5, is extremely bright and gifted, and will be instrumental as we continue to seek new and innovative ways to "Bring God's Word to the Community". Mei will work closely with Creative Director, Matt Kush, in helping to spread our message on the web, in social media, and print. Mei will do this in part as editor of our weekly Harvest News, and by administering all social media platforms. Adding the position of Creative Marketing Designer is a central element of the ongoing restructuring of our parish staff as we use contemporary means of communication to build on our pillars: Connect with God, Reach Others, and Build Community.

Ms. Holly Shanefelt recently left our staff after many years of service, first as Associate Minister of Music, and more recently as Director of Technology and Communication. Holly has a love for the people of our parish, and served us well. She was especially helpful and patient with me when it came to editing RAMBLINGS and the use of technology, at which I am sadly deficient! I appreciate her kindness. We thank Holly for her years of service, and call down God's blessing upon her.

“ Stand erect and raise your heads
because your redemption is at hand.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS: Certainly one of the highlights of the past year was our awesome Advent Series, three wonderful evenings of contemporary praise and fellowship. This year's Advent Series is entitled "Breaking Barriers", and will take place on the first three Fridays of December: December 1st, 8th, and 15th, beginning at 7:00 PM. In addition to being an excellent means of preparing ourselves for the Christmas Season, the series is great for people who have been away from the Church for a while, or are not part of a church community. Joining us for a regular Mass may be very intimidating for several reasons. These evenings are a more gentle and welcoming way to introduce them to our community and have them share prayer and fellowship with us. I encourage you to take this opportunity to Reach Others by inviting family and friends to join us for the series. In any case, please plan on coming yourself! Stay tuned!

We will be celebrating the Rite of Acceptance with our Catechumens and Candidates for Full Communion at the 9:30 Mass next Sunday. Those preparing for Baptism, or to complete their Sacraments of Initiation, will ask us to accept them into the Order of Catechumens and as Candidates. Please continue to keep them, and those accompanying them, in your prayers.

Blessings,

Fr. Ron

EARLY BULLETIN DEADLINE

Due to the Holiday season, printing and processing time increases. We kindly ask that you submit your bulletin content, no later than Monday the 13th. Thank you!

My dad (August 20, 1916 – March 11, 1988) was a unique guy. He was human, he had his faults and short comings, but he is one of my special people who not only influenced me, but challenged me to move out of my self-centeredness. My dad could get mad! My dad could raise his voice! But I never heard my dad swear. Swearing in our house was forbidden, even by my parents. But more than that, more than anything else, I remember my dad as a quiet loving man who was not impatient with setbacks. (A true story)

In the mid 1980's, my dad came up to Michigan from his home in Georgia to spend Labor Day weekend with Joyce, myself and our children. By the time he arrived at our house, it was close to midnight. He asked us if his boat and fishing poles would be safe in our driveway. Joyce and I assured him that they would be fine. When we got up in the morning, the poles and tackle box were taken from the boat. With a humph and a shrug, dad came back into the house. Later that Saturday, dad and I went to K-Mart to resupply the stolen equipment. And that night, dad disconnected the boat trailer from his car and put the boat in the back yard, and kept the poles and tackle box in his car.

Sunday morning the boat was fine, but the new poles and tackle-box were taken from the car. With a frustrated humph and a shrug, he came back into the house. After Mass, and lunch, dad, our son Eric and I went back to K-Mart to again re-supply the poles and tackle. (That night we kept the stuff in the house.) Monday, Labor Day, we get the boat out onto Lake St. Clair for a day of fishing. After several hours of not one single bite or even nibble, we came back in. When my dad got to the car, he couldn't find his keys. (They're somewhere at the bottom of the lake) It was Labor Day! We eventually got hold of a locksmith who would, for $70, make a key for dad.

Finally, the boat was on the trailer and dad and I were heading back to a friend's house where Joyce and the kids were. As we approached the intersection of Jefferson and South River Road, there was a stop sign that dad was about to ignore. Being the helpful son, the observant one – noticing a sheriff's car stopped at the sign, I quietly suggested that in "Michigan, we stop for those signs". Screeeeech! The boat jumped the trailer and crashed into the back of dad's car. Humph and a shrug of the shoulders.

With everything that happened that fateful weekend, my dad never whined about how unfair life was. My dad never uttered angry epitaphs at those who took his fishing equipment. With a humph and a shrug of the shoulders, my dad took life's setbacks as an opportunity to better appreciate everything that he had. Life was good to him, not because he was never challenged, but because he was blessed in so many, many ways.

My dad was not a religious man but he lived out the question proposed by Job: If we accept the good things from God, should we not also accept the bad? Job 2:10

ADORATION CHAPEL

MEET MEI

Mei studied multimedia design as well as front-end development, at Macomb College. Since the ripe age of eight, she was strongly interested in technology and art. It was that time when she built her first desktop computer from parts (with a little help), and two years later moved on to designing and coding blog layouts for herself and friends.

That undeniable passion, brought her to St. Isidore, in hopes to build, enrich and help grow its catholic community through great design and marketing. Mei considers herself a very spiritual person, therefore most of available jobs in her field didn't appeal to her. "It is very difficult to find a creative marketing position that brings a sense of purpose. I need to believe in what I do, to feel sufficiently, soulfully motivated". She is very excited to be working at St. Isidore, as it feels like just the right, purposeful thing she was looking for.

In her free time, she likes to design and craft costumes, play video games, volunteer, shoot recurve bow, visit trendy restaurants and most of all: travel the world. She visited dozens of countries and several continents, and she loves sharing stories about those. "I don't collect anything in particular, except for life experiences"

Diabetes Prevention

November is Diabetes Prevention Month. About 30.3 million Americans of all ages have diabetes. Twenty-five percent of adults aged 65 and older have diabetes; that's 1 in 4 seniors. The total direct and indirect estimated cost of diagnosed diabetes in the United States in 2012 was $245 billion. Average medical expenditures for people with diagnosed diabetes were about $13,700 per year. About $7,900 of this amount was attributed to diabetes. After adjusting for age group and sex, average medical expenditures among people with diagnosed diabetes were about 2.3 times higher than expenditures for people without diabetes. So it's important to do what we can to prevent developing diabetes and managing it after diagnosis. There are ways to prevent or delay diabetes onset, and lifestyle changes to help control diabetes if you are already diagnosed.

Reduce portion sizes:

- Try to eat sensible meals and snacks at regular times throughout the day.
• When eating out, share your entrée or dessert with a friend or have half of your meal to go.
• Don't cut out the foods you love to eat all together; just cut down on your portion size and eat it less often. Add more physical activity to your day
• Turn up the music and dance while doing household chores.
• Take the stairs as far as you feel comfortable, and then take the elevator the rest of the way.
• Skip phone calls and catch up with friends during a regular walk instead.
• Make healthy food choices
• Read food labels. Choose foods with lower fat, saturated fat, calories, and salt.
• Try getting at least one new fruit or vegetable every time you grocery shop.
• Cook with a variety of spices instead of salt.
• Find a water bottle you like and drink water wherever you go.
• Nurture you mind, body, and soul
• Pamper yourself by reading a book, takin a long bath, or meditating.
• Relax, take a walk, or enjoy listening to music.
• Nurturing yourself will help to reduce stress in your life!

Blessings, Heather

Thanksgiving truly is a "holy" day – a day set aside to give thanks to God and to be together as family and friends. Thanksgiving calls us to share: A sharing based on our gratitude to God.

If you are able to donate, we need:

- Baby shampoo, wash & lotion
• A & D ointment
• Size 5 & 6 diapers
• Toddler snacks

Prayer: Faithful God, may we beever mindful of those less fortunate than ourselves. May your lives be happy. God bless you!

THANK YOU!

There are, with the exception of home and Church, very few places where we can go and really feel safe and secure. Lately, however, no place seems safe and secure, including churches.

We just witnessed a tragic event in Texas, where 26 people died and 20 plus more were wounded, all at the hands of an individual who thought people who believed in God were "stupid". As of this writing not much else is known about this individual. While we have seen over the past few years events similar to this one, thank God, none have been close to home.

But what about St. Isidore?

Approximately a year ago I spoke at all the Masses, trying to assure our parish that we are as safe as we can possibly be, without installing metal detectors and locking the doors. which we can't do because of the fire codes.

Again, let me assure you that you are safe at St. Isidore. We do have a plan in place. We have been in contact with the Macomb County Sheriff's office, and I am on Homeland Security's contact list.

Last Spring, the afternoon shift Commander from the Sheriff's office and I walked through St. Isidore. Mrs. DeRey, our Faith Formation Director conducted an unplanned "Intruder" drill with the students, very much impressing the Commander. He and I were in the church and talked about the security of our parishioners. We are comfortable, as comfortable as we can be given the variables, that we can protect our parishioners and our parish. What those plans are, I cannot say, but be assured, they do exist. As you know, the Sheriff's sub-station is just down the road and I was assured that the response would be very rapid should the need arise. I will say this, and I am not trying to be funny, if an active shooter situation should arise, those around him/them should start throwing hymnals at the head, if possible. One cannot shoot and duck flying objects at the same time. This will give us time to neutralize the situation, hopefully without bloodshed. One other thing, and it goes for home as well as at Church or any other place,
IF YOU SEE SOMETHING,SAY SOMETHING.

That includes anything at all that seems out of the ordinary.

Believe it or not, the real "First Responders" are the victims. That's you and me folks.

Peace,

Tony Kendzierski
 Director of Security

If you wondered what happened to those 200 plus boxes we packed, here are a few examples:

A thank you letter from MSG Joyce, 365th CSSB, Camp Taji, Iraq. As well as the enclosed photograph of the unit opening their packages and a Certificate of Appreciation to St. Isidore for our support.

A thank you letter from Cpl. Emily E. Revoir, USMC who said she hangs the Rosary she received in her package by her bed.

A thank you from Chris Patterson, GS-13, USO, ASG Kuwait and Camp Arifjan.

To all who participated and helped in any way Fr. Ron, and our staff echo what these men and women of our Armed Forces say, THANK YOU FOR ALL YOU DO.

AUSTIN CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL

AUSTIN IN ACTION:

ACHS Cross Country athletes heading to States!

Congratulations to Freshman Carmela Shorkey and Juniors Christopher Shorkey and Benjamin Brown for making school history at the Regional Track Meet. All three finished in the top 15 at Lake St. Clair Metro Park.

We were blessed to have Father Crosby celebrate Mass with us and to share stories about his experiences while living with Father Solanus Casey. Pope Francis has approved a miracle attributed to the intercession of the venerable Detroit friar and signed a decree for his beatification – the second U.S. born man to be declared “blessed” by the Church.

The beatification Mass for Father Solanus Casey will be at Ford Field November 18, 2017.

WE ASKED, YOU LISTENED

Last year at this time, we asked you to help us with our decreasing collections. We asked you to consider how you are returning God's gifts and graces that you have received. You answered overwhelmingly that you are willing to help us in our Connect with others – Reach out to others- Build community efforts. We asked you to make a pledge of how much you were willing to increase your contribution. Your pledges were for a 32% increase. Through your increased giving our income increased almost $145,000 (12%) over 7 months from the previous year. Thank you for your support and continuing response.

On the accompanying page, please review the financial report. The first and second columns are the actual income and expenses for 2015-16 and 2016-17; the third and fourth columns are the budgets for last year (2016-17) and our current budget (2017-18).

As you review the figures, you may notice that for most of the categories, we did not exceed our budget. The notable exceptions are hospitality, worship programs, and evangelization programs. Through these areas we used the funds to expand our evangelizing efforts to connect with God, reach others and build community. Your support has made this possible!

One of the things we have heard is that more of you would like to participate in electronic giving. We have received complaints about the service we have been using about ease of use. To remedy this, we will be switching to an electronic giving service through Our Sunday Visitor. Other parishes have been using the service and are very pleased with it. The new service is much easier to use and provides other choices including credit card. More details will be available on how to begin using the service.

We celebrated our 60'th year as a parish this year. Over these years we have grown to be a vibrant Catholic community. With God's grace and your efforts, we will continue to grow by spreading The Good News.

THE POPE'S MONTHLY PRAYER INTENTION

NOVEMBER

Christians in Asia

That Christians in Asia, bearing witness to the Gospel in word and deed, may promote dialogue, peace, and mutual understanding, especially with those of other religions..

WE PRAY FOR THE SICK

Unless expressly requested by the family, usually the name of the sick person will be taken off the list after three months. In the instance of an ongoing serious, critical, or terminal status that is known to us, that policy will not apply.
