FR. NOEL - THE PILGRIM'S CORNER

THE BRIDGE SHOULD BE BUILT...

A great while ago, when the world was full of wonders... in 1883, a creative engineer named John Roebling was enthused by an idea to build a spectacular bridge connecting New York with the Long Island. However bridge building experts throughout the world thought that this was an unreasonable goal and told Roebling to disregard the idea. "It just could not be done, not practical and never been done before", they assumed. Roebling could not ignore the vision of the bridge. He thought about it all the time and he knew that it could be done. Sharing the dream with somebody, he managed to convince his son, a future engineer, that the bridge in fact could be built. Working together for the first time, the father and son developed concepts of how it could be accomplished and how the obstacles could be overcome. With great excitement and inspiration, and the headiness of a wild challenge before them, they hired their crew and began to build their dream bridge.

THE PILGRIM'S CORNER

The project started well, but when it was only a few months underway a terrible accident on the site took the life of John Roebling. Washington, his son, was also injured and left with a certain amount of brain damage resulted in not being able to talk or walk. Words they hear from majority? "We told them so." "Crazy men and their crazy dreams." "It's foolish to chase wild visions." Everyone had a negative comment to make insisting the project should be cancelled since the Roeblings were the only ones who knew how the bridge could be constructed. In spite of Roebling's son's handicap, challenged by discouragement; yet, still had a burning desire to complete the bridge and his mind was still as sharp as ever. So, he tried to inspire and pass on his enthusiasm to some of his dependable friends, but they, too were overly intimidated by the task.

Something happens...! One day, resting on his bed in the hospital, the sunlight streams through the windows, a gentle breeze blowing the flimsy white curtains apart and he's able to see the clear, blue sky and the tops of the trees outside for just a moment. It seems that there's a message for him NOT TO GIVE UP. Unexpectedly, an idea hits his mind. All he could do is move one finger and decide to make the best use of it. Then, he slowly develops a code of communication with his wife; touches his wife's arm with that finger, indicating to her that he wants her to call the engineers again. Afterwards, he uses the same method of tapping her arm to tell the engineers what to do. It seems stupid but the project is under way again! Roebling' son tapped out his instructions with his finger on his wife's arm, until the bridge was finally completed!

Today, the remarkable Brooklyn Bridge stands in all its glory as a tribute to the triumph of one man's unconquerable spirit and his determination not to be defeated by arduous circumstances. The bridge is also an evident tribute to the engineers; their teamwork and their FAITH in a man who was considered mad by half the world. It also stands as a tangible monument to the love and devotion of his wife who for 13 long years unwearingly translated the messages of her husband.

At SAINT ISIDORE CHURCH or in any given situation of our life right now, perhaps we have to face our own "personal Brooklyn Bridge" and cultivate a never-say-die attitude that overcomes our own physical and spiritual handicap and succeeds an incredible goal, purpose and mission as a Parish Community! Often in our own personal journey, we face obstacles in our day-to-day life, our obstacles seem very insignificant in comparison to what others have to face. Everything, by God's grace is to be built with prayer, determination and persistence, no matter what the odds are. GOD BLESS!

WHAT COMES FIRST?

I believe that this is an ages old question that still sparks arguments in and out of science: What came first – the chicken or the egg? For many people like myself, I am not too bothered by this particular question, but I do appreciate the principle that there is an order to life. Some things must come before another if there is going to be stability. This understanding was only reinforced by the many years I worked in construction. Buildings are constructed through a process of one thing after another. When trades try to corrupt the logical progression of a construction project, for any reason, chaos is introduced and the construction process is necessarily slowed. This understanding of logical progressions is not restricted to science or construction projects, but in almost every aspect of life. Quite like the question about chickens and eggs, is the question about “faith” versus “works” between Catholics and Protestants.

Contrary to what many Protestants accuse, the Catholic Church has never taught that people are saved by any other than the absolute mercy of Jesus Christ who died on the Cross and rose from the dead. The Catholic Church has never taught that there is a “competition” between “faith” and “works”. I do think though that some Protestants might have an incomplete understanding of “faith” that supports the question of “faith vs. works”. In James’ letter to the churches, he clearly identifies that true faith and works cannot be separated (c.f. James 2:14-26). Protestants though are quick to go to St. Paul’s letter to the Ephesians, where he “clearly” claims that salvation comes from a profession of faith in the Name of Jesus the Christ (Eph 2:8-10). What I believe that many Protestants are missing, is the culture of St. Paul and the make-up of the early church to which he wrote. Aside from the Roman persecutions, I suggest that one of the greatest obstacles facing the early church was the Jewish preoccupation with legalism. In Jewish thought, obedience to God was a complete observation of “Mosaic” law. Because many of the early members of the church were Jewish, the arguments of the “Judahites” demanding a circumcision was such a dramatic stumbling block to the early church.

It might be easier to understand the theology of St. Paul and St. James if we see (as do many Scripture scholars) Paul’s letter to the Ephesians as a cover letter to his larger work, the Letter to the Romans. The majority of Paul’s letter to the Romans clearly directs itself to those in the church who argue in favor of maintaining Jewish law to define Christian salvation. Paul simply maintains that if salvation was just a matter of keeping the “law” then Jesus’ crucifixion was pointless cruelty. On this, Catholics and Protestants are in complete unity – there is no salvation outside the pure gift of Mercy of Christ’s death on the cross! There is no salvation won through “circumcision alone”, following any of the ritual laws of “cleanliness”, nor personal acts of mercy. Salvation is God’s mercy. Catholics make a very profound profession of faith just before they receive the Eucharist: “Lord I am not worthy...” No one “worthily” receives the Eucharist, but “... only say the word and I shall be healed.” To be continued.

CSA MINUTE

Engaged couples across the Archdiocese of Detroit have been preparing for summer nuptials through marriage preparation programs.

Catholic marriage is a calling from God to a shared vocation of life and love. CSA gifts allow the archdiocesan Office for Marriage and Family Ministry to advise couples of the steps necessary to seek marriage in the Catholic Church, including completing marriage preparation programs to help build a foundation for this important sacrament.

The office also offers programs that enrich and nurture couples in every stage of the family life cycle.

For more information about CSA-funded ministries, programs, and services, please go to aod.org.

Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

As we celebrate and meditate on the mystery of the Trinity, we realize the mystery of how much God loves and cares for each of us. If we truly believe this, we will imitate God and love and care for others as He loves and cares for us

Thought for this week:

Og Mandino (author): "Beginning today, treat everyone you meet ... (with) all the care, kindness and understanding you can muster, and do it with no thought of any reward. Your life will never be the same again."

We still need:

- New summer clothes for girls sizes 12mo., 18 mo. & 24 mo.
- Baby laundry soap
- Nutramagen formula

On Memorial Day let us always remember to honor and pray for those who have died to preserve our freedom, all who have served our country, and those who serve today.

God bless America!

for the Festival is one our greatest needs. Did you know that it takes over 700 volunteers to make the Festival happen. We cannot be successful without your help!

As one of the most long-standing and well-attended events in Macomb, we want to make sure that our guests feel welcomed when they attend and enjoy the experience. Please consider signing up for a least one shift (or more!)

We've made it easy for you to do this through our website. Simply go to stisidore.church/festival and click on the volunteer link to view and sign up for a shift. Make sure to include your name, phone number and email address. Once we receive your volunteer choices, you will be sent an email confirmation.

The alternate way to volunteer is by a phone call. Call to schedule your work area and date/time (586-336-9006).

Please leave a message if nobody is available and your call will be returned as soon as possible.

Please help to make our parish festival a success with your time and talent.
Thank you in advance!

STRAWBERRY PATCH

The Strawberry Festival cannot happen without the generous support of our parishioners. If you're new to the Strawberry Patch, it is similar to the Giving Tree. On each berry is listed an item needed for the Festival such as gift cards, paper products, pop or other non-perishable food item. You are invited to take one (or more if you wish), purchase the item, and return it (with the berry included) to the red bins in the gathering space. The bins will be in place until the week before the festival when the gathering space is needed for the baskets. Please return gift cards to the office rather than the bins so they don't get lost. These small items are a huge help to making the Festival a success.

Jesus Teaches Nicodemus

Nicodemus was a Pharisee. He knew that Jesus had come from God because of all the miracles that Jesus had done. Nicodemus came to Jesus at night to talk to Him.

Finish the picture of Nicodemus.

Use this code to discover what Jesus said.
A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W X Y Z
Z Y X W V U T S R Q P O N M L K J I H G F E D C B A

Jesus said to Nicodemus,

" E V I B G I F O B R G V O O

B L F M L M V X Z M

H V V G S V P R M T W L N

L U T L W F M O V H H G S V B

Z I V Y L I M Z T Z R M

Nicodemus wondered how this could happen! Jesus told Nicodemus what His words meant.

From the list, find the missing part of each word and write it in below.
