FR. RON'S RAMBLINGS

I love the season of Advent. It is a time of joyful anticipation of Christ's Coming. During these first few weeks of Advent we focus on Christ's Second Coming, when he, in the words of one of our penitential tropes, "will come in glory, with salvation for God's people." What a time that will be! Then, in Advent's final days, we turn our attention to his First Coming, at Christmas, when, in the words of another trope, he "came to gather the nations into the peace of God's Kingdom." Advent is a time for us to wait in quiet and darkness for Christ's Coming.

I urge you to enter as fully as possible into this liturgical season. Be patient, and wait! Do not rush the Christmas Season! Enjoy the many beautiful symbols and images of Advent: a pregnant Blessed Mother; Mary and Joseph preparing for the birth of their child; the poems of Isaiah regarding the peace of God's Holy Mountain; spears being turned into plowshares; the candles on the Advent Wreath; the lion and the lamb lying down with each other, the child playing in the serpent's den; and John the Baptist, etc.

Pope Francis

@Pontifex

Advent is a time for renewing the faith, for purifying it, so that it can be more authentic. #SantaMarta

FR. RON'S RAMBLINGS

Then, after four weeks of preparation, and after having made room in our lives for the Child, we celebrate with great joy the Christmas Season. The Christmas Season begins for us at 4:00 PM on December 24, and continues until the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, which this year will be celebrated on January 13! The Season includes many bright feasts, including the Nativity of the Lord; the Feast of the Holy Family; the Solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God; the Baptism of the Lord; and, liturgically, the brightest feast of all, the Epiphany.

Patient waiting and prayer during Advent will allow us to celebrate the entire Christmas Season with great joy: right up to January 13th. It is my experience that, when we rush the season, and do not prepare sufficiently during Advent, we miss out on much that Christmas has to offer. We get "Christmassed out" (and take down decorations, stop partying, and stop singing Christmas carols) well before the season ends on January 13. (As in the past, our Parish Council and staff Christmas parties will actually be during the Christmas Season, on January 2nd and 4th respectively.)

Happy Advent:
Fr. Ron

THE ADVENT VIRUS

Deacon Jeff shared this humorous email in his homily on 12/2 which is shared here for your pleasure:

Warning.....warning: Advent virus

Be on the alert for symptoms of inner Hope, Peace, Joy and Love. The hearts of a great many have already been exposed to this virus and it is possible that people everywhere could come down with it in epidemic proportions. This could pose a serious threat to what has, up to now, been a fairly stable condition of conflict in the world.

Some signs and symptoms of The Advent Virus:

- A tendency to think and act spontaneously rather than on fears based on past experiences.
- An unmistakable ability to enjoy each moment.
- A loss of interest in judging other people.
- A loss of interest in interpreting the actions of others.
- A loss of interest in conflict.
- A loss of the ability to worry. (This is a very serious symptom.)
- Frequent, overwhelming episodes of appreciation.
- Contented feelings of connectedness with others and nature.
- Frequent attacks of smiling.
- An increasing tendency to let things happen rather than make them happen.
- An increased susceptibility to the love extended by others as well as the uncontrollable urge to extend that love.

Please send this warning out to all your friends. This virus can and has affected many systems. Some systems have been completely wiped out because of it.

Release the Advent Virus in you this advent season spreading hope, peace, love, and joy to strengthen each other in preparation for the return of our savior and Lord.

CONNECTING POINT

How can I be a voice of forgiveness?

In this week's Gospel, John the Baptist proclaims "a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins." In our Church, we can seek forgiveness in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, but what about other areas in our lives? I had one priest challenge me to take this time of Advent to be open to forgiving others as a gift to those people. When we hold grudges for so long it can change us and drag us down, but when we forgive others, it is almost a rebirth into a new relationship with that person.

Through Advent, we are preparing for the birth of Christ, and what better way to prepare ourselves than to give the gift of forgiveness? When other people see us forgive, it can be a movement of transformation, and a positive message that can catch on. So my challenge for you this Advent is to think about who in your life needs forgiveness right now and reach out to them. Consider sending them a Christmas Card or just reach out with a phone call. Let this time of the year be a time of forgiveness and celebration.

CSA MINUTE

Last month, hundreds of missionaries in parishes across the Detroit encouraged parishioners to take the six-day "Unleash the Gospel Challenge." Inspired by Archbishop Vigneron's pastoral letter, the challenge asks Catholics to devote five minutes per day to learn and pray about what it means to be a Church on mission filled with joyful, missionary disciples.

Your CSA gifts support innovative new communications in the Archdiocese. You can join this movement at any time at utchallenge.com. Each morning, you will receive an email with a two-minute video and a three-minute reflection, presenting an opportunity to learn more about the action of God in our region and the role you have in this great mission.
