A MESSAGE FROM TONY KENDZIERSKI

Only two weeks left to get your tickets to St. Isidore's first "Men's Night Out." Our guest speaker is Darren McCarty, former Red Wing forward and "enforcer" with the Wings from 1993 – 2004. During that time the Red Wings won four Stanley Cups. McCarty was part of the "Grind Line" which also included Kris Draper and Kirk Maltby. He scored 127 goals and accumulated 1,477 penalty minutes. McCarty wrote a book which was published in 2013 entitled "My Last Fight, the true story of a Hockey Rock Star." He was the lead singer during the off season with the hard rock band Grinder, thus the "hockey rock star".

Tickets are $25.00 each and can be obtained this weekend in the gathering space after all masses (except the 5:30 Mass). Cash or credit cards will be accepted. Tickets can also be obtained in the office or through our website: stisidore.church/mccarty. The evening will begin with dinner and a cash bar at 6:00 PM, followed by Darren's discussion at 7:00 PM and concludes with an hour of meet and greet wrapping up at 9:00 PM. There are only 400 tickets available, pre-sale only. If this event goes well with good attendance, then you can look for us to do something for men “only” next year.

Also, on Tuesday, March 5th St. Isidore will be holding its annual Mardi Gras party. Doors open at 5:30 PM followed by a lasagna dinner at 6:00 which includes a live comedy act. The evening will end with a prayer service in the church as we conclude this Ordinary Time in the Church’s Liturgical Calendar and enter into the Lenten Season beginning with Ash Wednesday on March 6th. Please register in advance by going to our website: stisidore.church/mardigras Admission is free but free-will donations are appreciated.

How can I show love for those that bother me?

Today’s Gospel is another well-known passage that contains a motto by which we should live as Christians:

...love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. To the person who strikes you on one cheek, offer the other one as well... (LK 6:27-29)

My mom always taught me that you don’t have to like someone, but you should love them. But it’s hard to love everyone... especially the people who are grouchy, unpleasant, or even just mean in how they treat you. I encounter people like this quite often, even in my role at church. It definitely affects me. Often, a person’s critiques or cruel words can feel like an attack, and my immediate instinct is to either defend myself or point out they are being hypocritical, but that is not what Jesus is teaching in today’s reading.

Jesus is asking me to take whatever mean words or actions are thrown at me and offer kindness in return. So, no matter how much I am bothered by someone’s unpleasant or nasty comments, my response should be kindness. That is a tall task, but I find that it is much easier to be kind after I sit on a situation overnight and pray about it. I almost always find that God has given me new energy with which to approach the situation the next day. This leads me to that kinder response.

So the next time someone bothers or says something unkind to you, one easy way to show kindness is to just take it in, pray about it, and pray for that person. It is much easier to offer the other cheek after time spent in prayer.

PRAYER BLANKET MINISTRY

Prayer blankets & shawls are available at no cost in the St. Isidore church office.

We have found an opportunity to serve the God who loves us all in our service to those needing comfort. Won't you share in this chance to serve God and help those with physical, mental, emotional, or spiritual support?

Giving one of our free-to-you blankets or shawls to a friend or relative tells that person there are many people who care about and pray for them.

Our "Comfort Crafters" meet every Thursday to make the blankets and shawls for parishioners to distribute. We always open our get-togethers with prayers for the recipients.

Thank you for your participation!
"The Comfort Crafters"

GRIEF SUPPORT MEETINGS

Grief Support Meeting will be starting here at St. Isidore on the 2nd and 4th Thursdays of each month at 6:30 pm, in the Front Conference Room. Our next meeting will be Thursday, February 28. Anyone in the community is a welcome to attend as we come together to deal with the grief associated with the loss of a loved one. So we may plan accordingly, please call the Parish Office 586.286.1700 to RSVP.

Thank you for your attendance at the February 10th pancake breakfast. With your help and support, we were able to raise over $1,000 that will be used for the benefit of others. We hope you enjoyed the food and the fellowship of this breakfast. As always, your continued support of our events is greatly appreciated, as they would be fruitless without your involvement. We pray you have a thoughtful Lent and a Blessed Easter. We hope to see you again at the May 19 Pancake Breakfast and of course during the Lenten Fish Fries. God Bless You and Yours, Your Knights of Columbus – Council 7200

CSA MINUTE

"Joyful Missionary Disciples: Unleashing Our Gifts," a workshop on the spiritual and practical aspects of stewardship as a way of life, will be held on Thursday, March 7, at Sacred Heart Major Seminary in Detroit.

The daylong event will feature Edmundo Reyes, director of archdiocesan communications, and Michael Murphy, executive director of the International Catholic Stewardship Council. Archbishop Allen H. Vigneron will celebrate Mass for attendees.

Your gifts to the Catholic Services Appeal help the Archdiocese of Detroit provide guidance on Christian stewardship, as well as materials, including the award-winning stewardship education manual, Called by Christ, Gifted by the Spirit, and weekly Stewardship Thoughts for parish bulletins.
