FR. RON'S REFLECTION

Happy Mother's Day to all mothers of our parish, and to those who share motherly love with our young people, such as aunts, teachers, coaches, mentors, counselors, etc.

In many ways, a mother's love is the most challenging of all forms of human love. We often talk about how in marriage two become one, as husband and wife, centering their lives on each other. With a mother's love, it is in some ways the opposite that takes place: what was one is allowed to become two. The mother, who was literally one with her child physically and emotionally, allows the child to separate from her and become their own independent person. A pure mother loves the child unconditionally and wants nothing in return except the happiness of the one loved. She does not expect the child's gratitude, just their happiness. It is extremely difficult to let the child go. Yet, that is a mother's task: to raise the child to be independent. If you are like me and had or have that kind of a mother, thank God (and her) today. If you are a mother, pray for the grace to love your children with a true mother's love.

This Wednesday, May 15, is our Patronal Feast Day, the feast of St. Isidore the Farmer. St. Isidore the Farmer is a great example of this Gospel paradox. He was a very pious man who, though poor himself, was known to always show hospitality to the poor. He was a very happy man. We will celebrate with coffee and donuts after the 8:00 Mass on Wednesday to help honor St. Isidore. Please join us if you are able.

In honor of St. Isidore, we will be distributing sunflower seeds at Masses this weekend. Seeds remind us that we must die to ourselves in order to bear fruit; the more of our life we give away, the larger our life becomes; the more love we share with others, the more love we have.

Easter Joy!

OUR LADY OF FATIMA STATUE

This is an opportunity for you to invite a beautiful statue of Our Lady of Fatima into your home for one week; pray the rosary and obtain information of the twelve promises of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary.

The statue would be delivered Saturday morning and picked up on the following Saturday morning. Your home and family would be enthroned to the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary.

If you are interested, please contact Rich Saigh at (586) 949-4559 or Barbara Valentic at (586) 264-8550 for more information and scheduling.

CONNECTING POINT

How is a good mother like a good shepherd?

In recent months two of my nieces, both of whom grew up and received all of their sacraments at St. Isidore, celebrated the birth of their first child. In each case, I have beautiful pictures of them holding their newborn child for the first time. The babies are extremely fragile. The mothers are obviously overcome with joy and pride. Their eyes are filled with tenderness and love. In sending the pictures, my nieces revealed the names by which they are calling their children: Olivia and Alexandra. They chose these names very carefully, and will surely never forget them.

In many ways, these pictures reflect the beautiful stained glass window of the Good Shepherd in our worship space. (This window is somewhat hidden in the corner on the west side of the church to the right of the wall on which the tapestries are hung). The shepherd is holding the fragile lamb with the same loving and tender expression on his face as is on the faces of the new mothers. It is clear that a mother's love is very much like the love of the Good Shepherd. Jesus, our Good Shepherd, values us and takes delight in us. He knows us and calls us by name. He is committed to protecting us and keeping us safe. As a mother would leave all else to go in search of a child who has become lost in any way, the Good Shepherd will go in search of a lost sheep. A mother pours out her life for the child, just as the Good Shepherd on the cross pours out his life for his flock. A child will always recognize its mother's voice, as we recognize our Shepherd's voice.

It is by happy coincidence that this year Mother's Day falls on the Fourth Sunday of Easter, also known as "Good Shepherd Sunday." I am sure you can think of many other ways in which a mother's love is like the love of the Good Shepherd. Praise God!

-Fr. Ron

ST. VINCENT dePAUL

Whether you are a Mother, Grandmother, Godmother, Aunt, Sister, Friend, to all who have had anything to do with taking care of a child, helping a young adult; we wish you a Happy Mother's Day.

Some families don't have the means of doing something special for the member of their family who takes care of them. While shopping for your special gift or meal for Mother's Day this week, think about picking up some of the items listed below. This may make a special meal for someone in our St. Isidore community.

Our Pantry needs are:

Laundry Detergent
Spaghetti Sauce - Jars & Cans
Mac & Cheese
Jelly
Peanut Butter
Paper Towel
Kleenex
$25 Meijer or Kroger Gift Card

"If I know what love is, it is because of you."

HERMAN HESSE

BABY PANTRY

Happy Mothers Day!

We ask that you consider giving something to a less fortunate mom, a mom who never has money to buy "something nice" for herself. "Gift" items are always welcome. Any lotions, fancy soaps, creams, hair products, shower gels, "pretty things," etc. you donate will be given to a local low-income lady in need.

Our current pantry needs are:

- Enfamil Gentlease formula
- Baby lotion and baby shampoo (both)
- Pull-ups 3T-4T (for boys)
- Baby cereal - rice
- Toddler snacks and pouches

Let us think of ways to touch the lives of others each and every day with the love of Jesus.

PRAYER BLANKET MINISTRY

Prayer blankets & shawls are available at no cost in the St. Isidore Church office.

If someone trusts you enough to share their pain, their struggle with anxiety or depression or just how rough things are for them, please give a prayer blanket or shawl (available in the Church office) to that someone for comfort this week. There is no charge for these items. Get and give a blanket or shawl to a person you know.

We started our Prayer Blanket/Shawl Ministry less than a year ago - in July, 2018. With your help we have distributed 200 blankets/shawls to comfort people in need. That's 20 a month, 5 every week! We are grateful that you bless your family members and friends with our hand crafted items.

It's Mother's Day!

If mom lives alone, suffers from an illness, is in assisted living or a nursing home, how about getting a blanket or shawl for her? We always pray for our recipients at every meeting of our crafting group.

Thank you for your participation in this ministry.

POPE'S MONTHLY PRAYER INTENTION // MAY

The Church in Africa, a Seed of Unity

That the Church in Africa, through the commitment of its members, may be the seed of unity among her peoples and a sign of hope for this continent.

MEASLES

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

Although it was declared eliminated from the United States in 2000, measles has rocketed back into the public eye in recent years following several well-publicized instances of localized outbreaks, including current news stories about new cases in surrounding counties.

What are the Measles? Measles, also called rubeola, is a highly contagious acute respiratory viral illness. Infections due to measles have been declining since the development of a vaccine in the early 1960s, but recently there have been several outbreaks throughout the United States in areas where vaccination rates have fallen.

What symptoms should people look for? After exposure, the measles incubation period is around one to two weeks. During this time, the infected person will show no symptoms. As the disease begins to manifest, the initial symptoms of measles include the “three Cs” – cough, coryza (runny nose), and conjunctivitis (pink eye). Once these symptoms begin to wane, a high fever and splotchy red rash appears on the face spreading to the trunk and arms. The infection can last two to three weeks, but the contagious period is anywhere from about four days before to four days after the rash appears.

If symptoms develop, DO NOT visit your doctor or emergency room unless you call ahead so they can take precautions to prevent exposure to other individuals.

How common is it? Measles remains a relatively uncommon infection in the United States thanks to the availability of a highly effective vaccination. In the last two decades, the number of patients per year infected with measles in the US has averaged between around 60 and 100 cases. However, due to declining vaccine rates, the number of cases in recent years has jumped to more than 200 per year.

Why is it coming back? Every measles outbreak that has occurred in the US in the last decade has been the direct result of either an unvaccinated traveler or a community of persons with low vaccination rates. Fears of the possible effects of the vaccine have led many to avoid vaccinating their children against measles, and unfortunately many countries outside the US still do not routinely have access to measles vaccination.

Who is most susceptible, and why? Is it worse at any particular age? The ones most susceptible to complications from measles are those who are very young, very old, and those who have compromised immune systems from certain medications or medical conditions. For medical reasons, people with severely compromised immune systems are unable to receive the vaccine. They rely upon the “herd immunity” of the population to keep them protected. As the rate of vaccination in a community begins to decline, the “herd” is no longer protected, and those who are at greatest risk of complications are potentially exposed.

How is it treated? There is no antiviral therapy available for the measles. Treatment consists of supportive care, fever-reducing medications like acetaminophen and ibuprofen, and drinking plenty of fluids to keep from getting dehydrated.

How can people avoid getting the measles? Vaccination is the best defense against contracting the measles. The vaccine is routinely given to children beginning at 12 to 15 months, with a second dose given between 4 and 6 years of age. People born before 1957 are presumed to be immune to measles, but those born during or after 1957 without evidence of immunity should get at least one dose of vaccination. If a person is uncertain whether they are immune or not, a blood test performed by their physician can show if they have immunity or not.

Are there any misconceptions about the disease? First, complications from measles infection are more common than many people think. Even in healthy children, measles can cause serious illness requiring hospitalization. About one out of every 1,000 persons infected with measles will develop acute encephalitis (inflammation of the brain), or possibly die from respiratory and neurologic complications.

Second, getting vaccinated is not just providing protection for you; it's also providing protection for the people in the community that are most vulnerable (the very young, the very old, and immunocompromised individuals, etc.) and rely upon herd immunity to remain safe.

It is widely accepted that the risk of potential complications from measles infection far outweighs the very minor risk of side effects from the vaccination itself.

Happy Mothers Day

SHE IS CLOTHED WITH STRENGTH AND DIGNITY, AND LAUGHS AT THE DAYS TO COME.
SHE OPENS HER MOUTH IN WISDOM;
KINDLY INSTRUCTION IS ON HER TONGUE.
SHE WATCHES OVER THE AFFAIRS OF HER HOUSEHOLD, AND DOES NOT EAT THE BREAD OF IDLENESS.
HER CHILDREN RISE UP AND CALL HER BLESSED;
HER HUSBAND, TOO, PRAISES HER:
"MANY ARE THE WOMEN OF PROVEN WORTH,
BUT YOU HAVE EXCELLED THEM ALL."
CHARM IS DECEPTIVE AND BEAUTY FLEETING;
THE WOMAN WHO FEARS THE LORD IS TO BE PRAISED.
ACCLAIM HER FOR THE WORK OF HER HANDS,
AND LET HER DEEDS PRAISE HER AT THE CITY GATES.

Ever have the feeling you would like to give a little more of yourself to some kind of activity where you could help others without taking up too much of your time? Looking for an opportunity where you could show others some Christian charity in the form of sympathy, compassion, and warmth during their time of need?

Perhaps the Funeral Server Ministry might be just the answer for you. We are looking for men and women of all ages who could devote a couple of hours a month to helping their fellow Christians during their time of sorrow in the loss of a loved one. Perhaps we are looking for you.

Funeral Servers assist the priest with the funeral service which normally includes Holy Mass and appropriate memorial ceremonies for the deceased and the grieving family and friends. It is a special way to give of yourself by honoring our beloved deceased brothers and sisters and extending comfort and support to their families in their time of need.

Funerals are held on weekday and Saturday mornings, normally at 10:00 AM or 12:00 PM. Only a couple hours at the most would be needed of your time for one such rewarding experience. Training would be provided and you would serve with an experienced partner. The more teams we have, the fewer times you would have to serve per month.

Sound like something you could do? Do you think you might be able to spare a couple of hours a month, whether on weekday mornings or Saturday mornings as your busy schedule permits, to reach out to others in this special way? You might be surprised at how rewarding it could be for you. If you are interested or would like to know more about this worthy ministry, please call Larry Opalewski 586-598-0688.

God may be calling you to help His children in this special way.
Won't you please consider volunteering?

Dear Heavenly Father,

My parish is composed of people like me;
I help make it what it is.

It will be friendly, if I am.
Its pews will be filled, if I help fill them.
It will do great work, if I work.
It will make generous gifts to many causes,
if I am a generous giver.
It will bring other people into its worship and fellowship, if I invite and bring them.

It will be a parish of loyalty and love,
of fearlessness and faith,
and a parish with a noble spirit, if I, who make it what it is,
am filled with these same things.

Therefore, with Your help, O God,
I shall dedicate myself to the task of being all things that I want my parish to be.

Amen.
