FR. RON'S REFLECTION

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Trinity, one of the few doctrinal feasts on the Church calendar. As Chris Kozlowski's reflection on this week's Connecting Point makes clear, the concept of the Trinity is a mystery and hard to fully understand. However, one image of the Trinity that was used by some of the early Church fathers is that of a circle dance. The Father, Son, and the Holy Spirit are pictured as holding hands, dancing in a circle! This points our belief that God is a COMMUNITY of persons. What is happening in heaven is that the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are becoming one. They are forming community.

Belief in community is at the heart of our Catholic faith. We believe that Christ and the Spirit come to us through and in community. The reason we expect all Catholics to come together every week in celebrating the Eucharist is so we can grow and be strengthened as a community. We can't build a community with people we don't see or get to know. The Trinity is the model of what we as a parish and a Catholic worshipping community want to become!

Pope Francis

@Pontifex

How do I know the Lord listens to me? We have a certainty: Jesus. He is the great intercessor. He ascended into Heaven, and He stands before the Father to intercede for us. His prayer of intercession is never-ending.

FR. RON'S REFLECTION

Sharing the Eucharist and public worship are the best ways to build community. However, for many years the annual Strawberry Festival has been a great community builder for us at St. Isidore. I am convinced that the Festival has played a vital role in forming and strengthening our parish family. By over seven hundred of us working together to put on the Festival, and so many of us coming together to experience the countless means of enjoyment at the Festival, we get to know each other better, form lasting friendships, and build a stronger community. BUILD COMMUNITY is one of the three pillars of our parish. With this in mind, I strongly encourage you to join us for the Festival next week and bring family and friends. If you have not had the joy of working on the Festival in the past, and have not as yet signed up to help this year, volunteers are still needed. Please check elsewhere in this bulletin or go the website to sign up.

Also, the annual Run the Plank is a way to build community with our Lutheran brothers and sisters at St. Peter Lutheran and Emmanuel Lutheran churches. While we love our Lutheran friends, there is no way we want them to beat us Catholics in the competition of most participants in the Run. But that is exactly what they have done every year UNTIL NOW. Please consider signing up to participate. The Run is on June 29th. Information is on the website and in the bulletin. Let's show those Lutherans!!

See you at the Festival,
Fr. Ron

CONNECTING POINT

How does the Trinity shape wisdom, faith and truth in my life?

As a lifelong Catholic and a long time employee of the Church, I feel that I should have a much better understanding of the Trinity than I do. I understand the basics-there is exactly one God and that the Father is God, the Son is God and the Holy Spirit is God, but that none of those Persons of God is each other. Yet, every time I try to explain this to a friend of mine, or one of my children, I feel that I get tripped up on their questions. I usually conclude the conversation reinforcing that this is one of the core mysteries of our faith.

Today, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches us that the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of Christian faith and life. God alone can make it known to us by revealing himself as Father, Son and Holy Spirit (CCC 261). This mystery, which is beyond human understanding, draws us closer to Him. When we believe that God is beyond our comprehension, we are humbled. In our humility, we look for His Wisdom. In our doubt, we lean on faith to assist us in understanding. In our uncertainty, we seek and find the truth all around us. We are then challenged to live this truth every day so that at the end of our earthly lives, we (hopefully) will live in the shining light of our God; Father, Son, and Spirit.

-Chris Kozlowski

Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

As we celebrate and meditate on the mystery of the Trinity, we realize the mystery of how much God loves and cares for each of us. If we truly believe this, we will imitate God and love and care for others as He loves and cares for us.

"... a major theme in Scripture:

God is on the side of the poor and disadvantaged...

How might we care for the disadvantaged in our own time?...

Whatever we decide to do, chances are, we'll encounter our great and awesome God already there, befriending the individuals we are helping.

Compassionate One, expand my heart to help someone in need today."

SR. MELANIE SVOBODA, S.N.D.

PRAYER BLANKET MINISTRY

Prayer blankets & shawls are available at no cost in the St. Isidore Church office.

It's Father's Day!

If your dad is ill, lonely or depressed, please get one of our prayer blankets for him. It's a great way to show him love and assure him that others are praying for him.

"The Christian Faith really comes down to love."

KAREN BEATTIE

Show your love for a family member or a friend by bringing a lovingly-made blanket or shawl to that person who needs reassurance that they are not forgotten.

Our ministry offers free blankets and shawls to parishioners for their family members and friends who are having surgery, are very sick or are going through extremely difficult times in their lives. Comfort blankets and shawls are hand-crafted by volunteers.

We invite you to help make (crochet, knit, quilt, or sew) blankets and shawls. Please join us. We meet every Thursday morning at 11:00 in the church social hall.

Thank you for your participation in this ministry.

ADORATION CHAPEL

Spring/summer is finally upon us!

The Adoration Team is looking for more people to help fill our Adoration Chapel with continuous coverage. The chapel is available every Tuesday immediately following morning Mass through closing Benediction at 6 pm.

Spending some quiet time before the Blessed Sacrament is such a relaxing and spiritually uplifting occasion. There is something special that we as Catholics feel about being in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament exposed in the monstrance on the Altar. Please come and partake of this wonderful gift!

The Adoration Chapel is located in the Resource Center which is just inside the handicap entrance on the Romeo Plank side of the church.

If you could dedicate to any time slot on Tuesdays, please contact the office or Dave Bisdorf at 586-202-7000. If you cannot commit to a time, feel free to drop in whenever you can for as long as you wish.

THANK YOU

A heartfelt thank you to my hard working pretzel makers, The Battaglia, Bischoff, Modlinski and Styf families. I couldn't do it without all of you. Thank you also to the parishioners of St. Isidore Church for your continuing support to Right to Life. We must protect our babies from conception on, as their life begins in that moment. They need us!

Sincerely,
