

How can I do MORE with what little I have?

OUR FOCUS

St. Isidore Church provides a safe, positive, and nurturing environment so that persons of every background feel included and engaged here.

Our doors are open. We reach out to those who are seeking God's grace and meet them where they are.

St. Isidore Church is a strong, passionate place of faith. Together we will build up our community and share it with those around us.

connect with us

Be sure to check in & like us on Facebook when you come to Mass, so that anyone searching for a church home knows there's a friendly face at St. Isidore.

A CORPUS CHRISTI STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL?

Yes folks, simultaneously this weekend, we have the yearly Liturgy of the Feast of Corpus Christi as well as the annual Strawberry Festival. What do these celebrations have to do with each other, other than they're here at St Isidore? That's a good question! As your new assistant pastor, I can, with less worry, dabble in these questions and question what we're doing. Whereas Fr. Ron, as pastor, has a more immediate concern for the financial well being of the parish as well as the spiritual. They may not be as disparate as they appear. Note: one is a FESTIVAL and the other is called a FEAST, as in "a church fest and a church feast," sounds similar to me! Don't we use the word "celebrate" as a verb for the way we engage in the Mass, the Eucharist, the Sacred Liturgy? The Mass is a celebration and the festival is to be fun? Can't both the two of them be a celebration in their own unique way? Some happiness and joy are possible for us in each one. The annual Sunday feast of the Body and Blood of Christ is itself a focus on the major part of the Mass, called the Liturgy of the Eucharist, wherein we may receive Communion.

So yes, on the downer side, I mention that among us some do not see or experience the Eucharistic Liturgy, the Mass, to be celebratory enjoyment. There are various reasons for this phenomenon. We tend toward more physical and immediate pleasures. I have been assigned in the past thirty years to several parishes which have festivals, (e.g. this is 'not my first rodeo') and know for some to have fun, others have to work at festivals, yet that too can be fun. So it thus seems there are people who'd rather partake of the Festival than in the Feast this weekend, as it's more "fun." The Mass has many official names, one is "the Sacred Liturgy." The word, Liturgy, is rooted in the Greek words for "public" and "work" or "works." There is the reality that Liturgy is the work of Worship that we need to exert ourselves. Yet don't we need to exert ourselves at least a bit to enjoy a festival or carnival? A liturgical Feast and a Strawberry Festival, the same weekend at the same place, St. Isidore Church. So share your experience with others who may not find both to be blessed enjoyments like you do!

See you at both,

Fr. Matt

CONNECTING POINT

How can I do more with what little I have?

Today we hear the well-known story of Jesus feeding the multitude gathered before him with only five loaves and two fish.

When Jesus told the disciples to feed the crowd, their reply was, "...but this is all we have." They felt that they didn't have enough to do what Jesus was asking them.

How often have you ever felt like that? Like what you have just isn't enough to do all of the things that you either need or want to do? I think we all feel like that from time to time. If the day just had one more hour... or If I could just make a little bit more at my job...

We all work hard to make a living wage to pay the bills, support our families, and maybe save up for that something special for ourselves (a vacation, a nicer car or house, etc.). Then we are asked to give more to support the Church, other charities, or people in need. This can be a challenging request.

Time is another commodity of which we never seem to have enough. Our schedule can be packed so full of activities, that it seems as though there just isn't enough time to volunteer or drive across town to see someone we haven't seen in a while.

But what Jesus is telling us in today's gospel, is that we DO have the resources we need to be generous. We just need to pray and reflect on how we use them.

Despite having finite resources and never feeling like we have enough, maybe now is a good time to take a look at how we are spending our time and money. Maybe we, like the disciples, need to trust in Jesus and know that we can actually do more with what we have.

-Matt Kush

Summer begins this week! School is out and our pantry enters its busiest time of the year. Children who usually receive breakfast and lunch are now home and trying to find food for their next meal. Joe Flach said, "There is nothing worse in this universe than a child without hope; there's no better way to seize the day than to add charity to your scope."

Our Pantry needs are:

Peanut Butter
Tuna
Canned Spaghetti Sauce
Rice & Pasta Sides - Rice-a-roni etc.
Canned Fruit - Any
Chili
Manwich
Chicken Helper
Crackers - Saltine or Club
Jello
Frosting
Candy
Shampoo
$25 Meijer or Kroger Gift Cards

Members of SVdP are sponsoring a game for all ages; the Sweet Treat Game on Sunday at the Strawberry Festival in the Gathering Space. Come and win a delicious prize.

God Bless

PRAYER BLANKET MINISTRY

Prayer blankets & shawls are available at no cost in the St. Isidore Church office.

Our ministry has many caring volunteers who pray for the future recipient. The blankets and shawls made by our volunteers are blessed at an 8:00 A.M. Weekday Mass before they are given to parishioners for family members and friends who need comfort. These prayer blankets and shawls are a symbol of St. Isidore's faith-sharing prayers for the individual who receives it. Blessed blankets/shawls are available free of charge in the parish office.

"We love because He first loved us." (1 John 4:19) Love gives. That is why God so loved the world that He gave His Son. In dying for us, we have the forgiveness of sins. By trusting in this Jesus, we have experienced His love and can share that love with someone else. There is a song I remember early in my ministry entitled "Love to be love must be given away." Look for different ways to give love away and experience the real joy of loving."

PASTOR MIKE L. @ IMMANUEL LUTHERAN

We ask that you share this ministry information with other parishioners.
Thank you from the Comfort Crafters.

BABY PANTRY

THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

As we celebrate the gift of the Body and Blood of Christ, let us remember those who desperately need our prayers.

We are very, very appreciative for your continuing support of this ministry. Your donations have enabled us to assist many, many low income families who need assistance with baby/toddler items. From all of us to all of you, thank you and God bless you!

If possible, please donate:

- A & D ointment
- Diapers sizes 3 and 4

"Each time we reach out to assist another person, the blessing we are given is the opportunity to practice hospitality."

SR. MACRINA WIEDERKEHR, O.S.B

Enjoy the Strawberry Festival.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR MINISTRY

Thank you to John Gietzen who has served as an usher for nearly 62 years. He will be hanging up his burgundy jacket this summer.

ADORATION CHAPEL

Spring/summer is finally upon us!

The Adoration Team is looking for more people to help fill our Adoration Chapel with continuous coverage. The chapel is available every Tuesday immediately following morning Mass through closing Benediction at 6 pm.

Spending some quiet time before the Blessed Sacrament is such a relaxing and spiritually uplifting occasion. There is something special that we as Catholics feel about being in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament exposed in the monstrance on the Altar. Please come and partake of this wonderful gift!

The Adoration Chapel is located in the Resource Center which is just inside the handicap entrance on the Romeo Plank side of the church.

If you could dedicate to any time slot on Tuesdays, please contact the office or Dave Bisdorf at 586-202-7000. If you cannot commit to a time, feel free to drop in whenever you can for as long as you wish.

HOSPITAL VISITS

Years ago, if you were admitted to the hospital, you would be asked your religious affiliation, and that information would then be passed on to the Chaplain's office. The church staff would call the Chaplain's office at the surrounding hospitals and ask for a list of parishioners who were in the hospital. Then a priest would come and make a visit.

Eventually, HIPPA laws came into effect and, because of the privacy laws, hospitals could no longer give out that information, even though a patient might want their church made aware. If you or a family member are hospitalized and want a priest to visit you, you must call us at the office and let us know what hospital you are in, how long you think you will be there and wish to have a priest visit you.

Peace,

In the face of our country's challenges, and challenges within the Church herself, Catholics find strength in the hope of Jesus Christ. We want to share that hope with everyone.

Religious freedom gives us the space to carry out the mission that Jesus has entrusted to the Church. Religious freedom means that Catholics, and all people of goodwill, are free to seek the truth and to live in accordance with that truth, and so to strengthen our common life as a nation.

Beginning June 22, the Feast of Saints Thomas More and John Fisher, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops celebrates Religious Freedom Week. In the midst of our current challenges, join us as we seek the kingdom and find Strength in Hope.

CSA MINUTE

SACRED HEART MAJOR SEMINARY

On June 8, Archbishop Allen H. Vigneron ordained three men to the priesthood for the Archdiocese of Detroit at the Cathedral of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Fathers John McKenzie, Adam Nowak, and Derik Peterman studied to become our shepherds at Sacred Heart Major Seminary, which is the college and graduate seminary of the Archdiocese of Detroit. Your gifts to the Catholic Services Appeal support seminarians as they prepare for the priesthood as well as men in the permanent diaconate program.

Sacred Heart's student body also includes seminarians studying for the priesthood for other dioceses throughout the country and world, and religious orders. Lay women and men earn graduate and undergraduate degrees and diplomas in religious studies at the seminary to serve in parish ministry throughout the Archdiocese.
