CONNECTING POINT REFLECTION

What more can I do to show others mercy?

Jesus is tested by a law scholar on how to inherit eternal life. When Jesus asks him what the law says, he repeats what was written. Jesus responds that he is correct. That is not good enough for the lawyer, so he chooses to test Jesus again, asking who is his neighbor? Jesus responds with the parable of the Good Samaritan.

Who is our neighbor? We live in challenging times where Jesus is asking us to answer this question for ourselves. We can look inward to our own families, in our schools and workplaces. There we see our neighbors. Our neighbors may also be outside of our country. All people are exposed to suffering. All experience hardship and pain as we go through life. We all experience bitter words or the stress of taking care of a loved one. Jesus wants us to show our mercy and love to others, no matter who they may be.

Pope Francis

Through your attention to the little ones and to the poor, you can kindle stars in the night for those who suffer.

CONNECTING POINT REFLECTION

There are so many images today that remind us of the struggles in our world. Struggles they never asked for or wanted. Jesus guides us to love one another and show mercy to those who are cast out or despised. Jesus guides us to act in mercy to those within our local communities and those without that struggle with addictions, homelessness, and mental illness. He wants us to show mercy to those who suffer persecution at the hands of others.

How do we show mercy to others? Sometimes all it takes is a warm compliment or smile. Other times it involves action. We can all get involved in some action group or organization. Each one of us has special skills given by God that can make a difference with someone in need. It may involve bringing others in contact with the resources they need or providing comfort in times of stress.

As followers of Christ it is up to us to walk in his footsteps. Like the good Samaritan we are traveling on our own road. As we journey toward eternal life, who are your neighbors you meet on the way and how will you bring the mercy of Christ to them?

-Deacon Jeff Loeb

DON'T FORGET CHRISTMAS

As I write this article it is June 27, our very successful festival is concluded and summer is very much here. Now our thoughts turn to vacations, golfing, picnics and a myriad of other summer activities that we enjoy with family and friends. What has this to do with Christmas? We all know that when the holidays come around, our thoughts turn to other activities, such as holiday shopping, baking, holiday gatherings, decorating and Christmas and Easter vacations. We also give to the Christmas giving tree, the Lenten giving tree. There are visiting priests and others who come in to talk about areas where people are in need of shelter, food and monetary assistance. We donate extra food, especially turkeys and hams to St. Vincent de Paul for Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter food baskets. Believe it or not, those same people, those same problems of hunger, homelessness, and the need for other assistance exist while we enjoy summer. Please remember to continue to give to our food pantry and the baby pantry so that we can continue to help those who are unable to help themselves. It doesn't take much and we can still enjoy all our summer activities and maybe enjoy summer a little more for having continued our generosity.

Peace,

St. Isidore Church is blessed with extremely generous Christians. Please say a special prayer for the recipients as you place your gift in our donation box by the office.

Let us strive to be:

A mind through which Christ thinks,
A heart through which Christ loves,
A voice through which Christ speaks,
A hand through which Christ helps.

ST. VINCENT de PAUL

1581
1660

July 17th is the feast day of St. Alexis the beggar. As a young man, he lived in poverty and humility all the while helping beggars and sick people. After many years away he returned home, but was not recognized. Having pity on this stranger his family took him in and put him in a hole under the stairs. In a dream his father realized it was his son, but it was too late. He died of neglect and hunger in 400 AD.

It is astonishing that in today's time we still have issues with hunger in the world. Please look over the needs for our Pantry that are listed below and help out someone in our St. Isidore community.

Our Pantry needs are:

- Ladies' Depends - Large (any brand)
- Chunky Soups
- Canned Chili
- Peas
- Carrots
- Canned Fruit - Peaches, Pears
- Canned Spaghetti Sauce

CATECHESIS

Vacation Bible schools allow children to have fun while growing spiritually.

Through the archdiocesan Department of Evangelization, Catechesis and Schools, your gifts to the Catholic Services Appeal support the work of catechists, who plan vacation Bible schools in parishes throughout the Archdiocese of Detroit. These faith-filled weeks during the summer help children encounter Christ in a relaxing way.

Dedicated catechists also teach the Catholic faith in parishes and Catholic schools. Their mission includes helping others to reflect on their faith and understand its purpose in today's secularized world.

Then Jesus asked, "Which of these three do you think was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of robbers?"

Write the name beside each picture. Read the darker boxes from top to bottom, and write that word on the blank below.

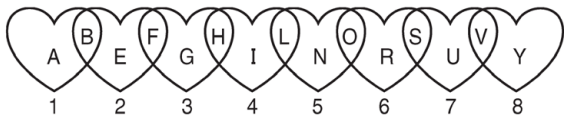

The expert in the Law replied, "The one who had _____ on him."
Jesus told him, "Go and do likewise."
