FR. RON'S REFLECTIONS

When we started our 5:30 PM Sunday Night Mass in May of last year ("A Mass for the Busy Catholic" as we used in our tagline), our plan was to evaluate it after one year to see if it should be continued. If you have ever participated in the Sunday Night Mass, you know that we do things a little differently than at our other Masses. The music is a bit more contemporary, often with Matt on the keyboard and Amy on the guitar. The atmosphere is more "relaxed." We have an extended opening greeting before Mass which includes all announcements and assists with the flow of the liturgy during the Closing Rite; there is no entrance procession; and the presider sits in the pew during the Liturgy of the Word (I really like this, as I feel more a part of the community and can see the front of the Lector as the Lector proclaims the Word). There seems to be much more energy at this Mass. In fact, very few people leave early, and hardly anyone leaves during Communion. While some parishioners are not comfortable with this "format," most people who have experienced it have responded favorably. This Mass was seen as an attempt to reach out specifically to our young families who are often busy with sporting and other events on Sunday mornings. We have noticed many young people at this Mass. However, even many of our "older" parishioners seem to prefer this Mass. Last week a couple of elderly ladies told me after the Sunday Mass that it was their first time to St. Isidore. They plan on joining the parish because they were very much inspired by the liturgy, especially the music. The Pastoral Council recently advised keeping the 5:30 Mass on a permanent basis.

Please keep our young ones in your prayers this week during Vacation Bible School. This is one of my favorite weeks of the year as so many young families come through the facility. Our VBS team does a tremendous job in leading a very energetic and fun-filled week which goes a long way in helping our children grow in their faith. We thank everyone who has supported this year's VBS by your donations and volunteering your time. Let's "ROAR!"

A Program to Help Couples Heal and Renew Their Marriages

Do you feel lost, alone or bored in your marriage? Are you frustrated, hurt or angry with your spouse? Are you constantly fighting? Or, do you simply shut down? Have you thought about separation or divorce? Does talking about it make it worse?

Retrouvaille can help!

The Retrouvaille Program consists of a weekend experience combined with a series of twelve follow up (or Post) sessions over the course of six weeks. It provides the tools to help put your marriage in order again. The main emphasis of the program is on communication in marriage between husband and wife. It will give you the opportunity to rediscover each other and examine your lives together in a new and positive way. There is an alternative to divorce!

Please pass this information on to anyone who you suspect might be a hurting couple

The next Retrouvaille program begins Friday, August 23rd, in Romulus, Michigan.

CONNECTING POINT

How can I choose to be more attentive in the moment?

Have you ever been in a situation where you're in a group having a conversation with friends or family, perhaps at a meal, and someone pulls out their phone? Maybe it's an important message that needs an immediate response, or maybe that person is just bored and decides to check email or refresh their Instagram feed. Admittedly, I have been on both ends of this: I've been present when other people at the table pull out their phone (and feel annoyed by that), but have also been guilty of this social faux pas as well.

As another example: my wife and I love to host company at our house for meals and social gatherings. When our guests are visiting, it's easy for me to be distracted by making sure that everything stays clean, cups are filled, and dishes washed after a meal. I usually justify these actions as part of being a good host but also attribute them to my OCD personality.

These situations are similar to the story we read in this Sunday's gospel where Martha becomes angry with her sister Mary who sat down and listened to Jesus rather than help with housework. Jesus told Martha, however, that Mary had made the better choice.

I would definitely feel the frustration if Jesus had told me this as well, but it causes me to stop and think: when guests are visiting, or I am in a conversation, what is happening in that moment? The connection that is being made should always be my top priority.

Let's challenge ourselves this week, to resist the urge for distractions and focus more on the relationships and interactions that are occurring right in front of us and live in the moment.

-Matt Kush

It's hard to believe that in one month we will be having our Back to School Distribution for 80 children. We are trying to collect a few food items that will help them start their day and possibly a snack after school. We appreciate but cannot accept school items, instead we give each child a $25 gift card (compliments of the Altar Society) to help them purchase class items that are on their school list.

The list below are the items we are looking for to give each family when they pick up their gift cards on August 22nd, along with some other Pantry items.

We distribute everything you donate to needy families.

PRAYER BLANKET MINISTRY

Prayer blankets & shawls are available at no cost in the St. Isidore Church office.

Prayer blankets and shawls are available for your family member or friend with a serious illness or a need for comfort. Please get a blessed, hand-made blanket or shawl for your loved one.

Our ministry takes this opportunity to publicly thank those who have helped this service to parishioners. To Father Ron, the Altar Society, all parishioners who have given a blanket or shawl to comfort someone, to Matt Kush, Chris Kozlowski, the Rosary Ministry, to our donors of yarn and monetary gifts, and to the St. Isidore secretaries and staff, all of whom are always helpful.

May God Bless You for your support.
Thank you for your participation in this ministry.

NATURAL FAMILY PLANNING

"Love, Naturally! Natural Family Planning: Cooperating with God's design for married love" is the theme of National NFP Awareness Week this July 21-27. This United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' annual educational campaign celebrates God's design for married love and the gift of life while raising awareness of NFP methods.

Gifts to the Catholic Services Appeal allow the archdiocesan Office for Natural Family Planning to offer presentations to couples in our Archdiocese who are using or are curious about NFP, as well as classes in NFP methods for married couples seeking families. Endorsed by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, NFP is a way of life by which couples recognize natural, biological signs of fertility and infertility.
