FR. RON'S REFLECTIONS

"You may not be able to hear US. But we have heard YOU!"

We continue to get "feedback" from parishioners and visitors to our parish that it is difficult to understand the spoken word in the main section of our worship space. I have been told that some parishioners have decided to worship elsewhere for this reason. It seems that the system works well in the two "overflow" sections, which is due to the position of the speakers, the lower ceiling, the carpeting, and the padded chairs that absorb some of the sound, preventing the "echo" effect that exists in the larger section of the church.

Recently, a parishioner who usually sits in one of the overflow wings on Sundays sat in the main section for her nephew's Funeral Mass and became aware of the poor sound in that section. Out of concern for the quality of our worship experience she generously offered to contribute twenty thousand dollars toward the replacement of our sound system. Our recent attempts to improve the sound by making adjustments to the system, rather than incur the expense of replacing it, have not had the desired effect. This generous offer has served as a catalyst for our Finance Council to move forward with plans of purchasing a new sound system. We are in the process of accepting bids for the project as required by due diligence. It will be at least a few months before a new sound system will be in place. We are very grateful to this generous donor.

The Finance Council is also accepting bids on replacing the lighting in the church that is more energy-efficient and less costly to maintain. This is in keeping with our efforts to be a "greener" parish. As you may recall, Pope Francis has named "Care for Creation" as the most important Respect Life issue. LED lighting requires one-eighth of the energy of the existing lights. We have recently replaced the lighting in the parking lot and throughout the rest of the plant with LED fixtures. In addition to being greener, LED lighting is a great money saver.

Stay tuned for further developments.

Blessings,
Fr. Ron

CONNECTING POINT

How can I use my hard work to glorify God?

'You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong? Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God.' LUKE 12:20-21

Each of us is charged with living a life that honors God. For some people, this charge is obvious. A priest, religious brother, or a nun dedicate their entire life to serve the Church, that is their primary purpose in life. Their hard work is intended to draw people closer to God. But the reality is, most of us work outside the church. We dedicate our time teaching, serving, leading, and/or performing tasks so that the company we work for is successful in carrying out its mission. Our primary purpose is to provide a service, and to receive compensation for our contribution; this is the system of commerce that most of us are a part of. A lesson can be learned from the parable that we hear today.

The man in today's Gospel didn't understand that the abundance he had was not intended to benefit only him, but rather everyone. Our talent, time, and treasure are meant to be used for others, as our lives are a gift from God, and all of the "bounty" of our life is to be shared. This reflection is not meant to guilt someone into supporting the work of the church by volunteering or tithing more, that is not how I personally think or how I operate. I operate with a clear understanding that the Lord has immensely blessed my life (and, each of yours) and that the fruits of my effort are due to the blessings that he has given to me. Giving back is a way of acknowledging this. There are studies that show that a higher degree of happiness is achieved by those who cheerfully give to others. I regularly witness that joy here at St. Isidore with the smiles on the faces of our volunteers in all of the various ministries. My friend, the late Bill Sabonis, had a motto that refuted the idea of giving until it hurts. He would say "Chris, don't give until it hurts, give until you smile." I think this is a great way to live. The more we give of our time, talent and treasure, the more we glorify God on our earthly journey, and the happier we become. As we head to work tomorrow, let us realize that the efforts of our day are an opportunity to glorify God.

MUSIC MINISTRY WELCOMES MS. BRIANNA HOLMES, CANTOR

We welcome our newest Cantor/Psalmist, Brianna Holmes to the St. Isidore Music Ministry Team.

Brianna will be a Senior at Anchor Bay H.S. this Fall where she enjoys sharing her gifts and talents in various clubs and organizations including Color Guard, drama, Girl Scouting and as the choir president of the A.B.H.S. Chorale. Brianna was also one of the winners in our Strawberry Festival Talent Show this year for her amazing vocal performance of the song, "Good Night Moon" by Eric Whitacre. We are blessed to have Brianna share her lovely vocal support in musical prayer with our St Isidore community.

PRAYER BLANKET MINISTRY

Prayer blankets & shawls to comfort people are available - free - in the St. Isidore Church office

All of us need a lift in life. We are down at times. Knowing others care might give a person the power to meet the afflictions of life - those burdens that bring someone down.

We all have wounds - from broken relationships, injuries, tragedies, illnesses, etc. These wounds are real. They may have healed, but the scars may still remain.

Prayer blankets and shawls are free of charge and available for your family member or friend with a serious illness or a need for comfort. Please choose a blessed blanket or shawl for your loved one. We also distribute blessed rosaries. We thank our parish rosary maker group for this donation.

If you crochet, knit, sew, or quilt and would like to help make blankets and shawls for people needing comfort, please join our ministry. We normally meet every Thursday at 11:00 in the Social Hall. For more information, call the church and ask to speak to a Prayer Blanket Ministry member. May God bless you and those you love. "The Comfort Crafters"

We ask that you share this ministry information with other parishioners. Thank you from your Comfort Crafters.

SACRED HEART MAJOR SEMINARY/INSTITUTE FOR MINISTRY

Many students registering for classes at Sacred Heart Major Seminary this month have received scholarships through the Parish Empowerment Fund, thanks to gifts to the Catholic Services Appeal.

Our major seminary prepares men for ordination to the priesthood and the permanent diaconate, as well as offers degree and certificate programs for lay women and men seeking to be "new evangelists for the new millennium" at the Institute for Ministry. Through discernment and theological reflection, the institute guides and challenges commuter students to deepen their commitment to spiritual growth, attend to their call, and identify their gifts for service in the Church.
