CONNECTING POINT REFLECTION

How do I remain faithful through the trials?

I believe that it is our dreams which give meaning to our lives. Our dreams move us and sustain us through difficult times.

Jesus dreamed of the "Reign of God," a kingdom of compassion, justice, and peace, in which everyone lived in right relationship with each other. It was this dream which kept him faithful through his many trials, especially his agony in the garden and crucifixion.

In our First reading today, it is the Maccabee brothers' dream of one day being raised up by God that empowers them to remain faithful to their Jewish faith in the face of torture and martyrdom. Their dream is expressed in the refrain of the Responsorial Psalm (Ps. 17) for this Sunday: "Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full."

In our New Testament reading, St. Paul points out that Jesus encourages us and strengthens us to remain faithful in every good deed by sharing with us His dream of the Kingdom of God.

A time of trial in my life was the last couple of years of the twelve that I spent in the seminary. I was burnt out by studies and disillusioned by many of my closest friends who decided to leave the seminary to pursue different vocations. I had many self-doubts, but what kept me faithful was my dream of ordained ministry and the joy it would bring.

We all face many trials in our lives; trials of faith, health, relationships, death of loved ones, vocations, etc. Holding onto our dreams has the power to keep us faithful. What are your dreams?

PRAYER BLANKET MINISTRY

Prayer blankets and shawls are available in the office.

Thanksgiving is almost here. This beautiful holiday celebrates God's goodness, family, friends, and happiness. It is a time for thankfulness.

But for some, Thanksgiving means loneliness and fear. Together we can make a difference in their lives.

Our ministry has touched the lives of so many people who have received a blanket or shawl during a difficult time in their lives. Get one for a friend or relative, free, in our church office.

Prayer: "God ever-focused on giving, Your generosity enriches every corner of my life. Challenge me to focus on ways to support and give generously to others."

JANET SCHAEFFLER, O.P.

We pray for all our recipients.
Thank you for your participation.

Each year, more than 20,000 people receive help and hope through the services and programs of Catholic Charities of Southeast Michigan (CCSEM). This social justice arm of the Archdiocese of Detroit works to bring the love and mercy of Jesus Christ to those in need, regardless of their race or religion, culture or creed.
