

WHAT PARTS OF MY LIFE ARE pleasing to God?

OUR FOCUS

St. Isidore Church provides a safe, positive, and nurturing environment so that persons of every background feel included and engaged here.

Our doors are open. We reach out to those who are seeking God's grace and meet them where they are.

St. Isidore Church is a strong, passionate place of faith. Together we will build up our community and share it with those around us.

FR. RON'S REFLECTIONS

This weekend we welcome Fr. Adam MacDonald to St. Isidore. Fr. MacDonald is the Vocation Director with the Divine Word Missionaries. He is here to help us celebrate "Vocation Sunday." The Divine Word Missionaries played a large part in my discernment regarding my vocation. While in grade school I joined their Vocation Club. However, when it came time to enter a high school seminary back in 1965, I chose to enter our archdiocesan seminary, Sacred Heart Seminary High School.

I was in fifth grade when I began to seriously consider the priesthood. I am sometimes asked why I wanted to be a priest. First, my parents, Monica and Leonard, were practicing Catholics who truly lived their faith. They sent us to Catholic grade school, where I was much influenced by the religious women who taught there. I was also influenced by Fr. Ray Marshall, the pastor of St. Dorothy Parish in Warren, of which my family were founding members. I looked up to Fr. Marshall and saw him as a humble, holy, and happy man. I think my "call" came through my parents, my teachers at St. Rose and St. Clement Grade Schools, and Fr. Marshall. I saw the priesthood as a way to serve

 In its genuine simplicity, the nativity scene reminds us it is not the quantity of things that counts in life, but the quality of relationships. Drawing our gaze to God, who is poor in possessions and rich in love, it recalls us to what is essential. #Nativityscene

FR. RON'S REFLECTION

God and God's people. I am approaching the 42nd anniversary of my ordination and in these many great years I have been and continue to be extremely happy as a priest. My hope is parents take time this weekend to have a serious discussion with their children regarding if God is calling them to a ministry in the church as a priest, religious man or woman, or lay ecclesial minister. We thank Fr. MacDonald for his message this weekend.

Today's Feast of the Baptism of the Lord brings our Christmas Season to an end. We thank everyone who helped to make this a very bright Christmas at St. Isidore. Special thanks to all parishioners who joined us to celebrate the many bright feasts of the Christmas Season. We are grateful to all of our liturgical ministers: ushers, lectors, eucharistic ministers, Mass servers, sacristans, and especially members of our music ministry for their magnificent Christmas concerts and leading us in joyful praise throughout the season.

Blessings,
Fr. Ron

CONNECTING POINT

What parts of my life are pleasing to God?

"This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased"

MATTHEW 3:17

In Jesus, the Son of God, we see the fulfillment of Isaiah's prophecy of what is known as the Servant of the Lord oracles. This is the first of four in Isaiah. We have within these words our ideal model of how we are to serve the Lord.

Every day we are challenged to open our hearts and minds to hear God's Word and discern how God is using us in this world. We can, through prayer and meditation, determine God's "plan" for us. God's gift of faith allows us listen to the Spirit. The seed of the gospel and the Kingdom of God are being sown every day by each of us.

Building spiritual success, confidence and eternal hope into your life depends on how you respond to the Spirit. The seeds of the gospel of God and His eternal Kingdom are spread before you to make good use of them. It is through our day to day lives that we hear God proclaim that our response is pleasing to Him.

- Deacon Tom Carter

A BIG BLESSING BLANKET THANK YOU!

What happens when you put together 25 Confirmation Candidates, three adult volunteers, 10 S.I.T.E. teen coordinators and workers, one very impressed Youth Minister and yards and yards of fleece?! You get a lot of laughs, 53 fleece blankets and nine throws for Friends of Foster Kids.

Special thanks to all of the wonderful parishioners who donated fleece to help make this possible. Also, a special thanks to Debby Bruck and our Knights of Columbus who, every year, shop and make a donation of fleece supporting this cause.

What a blessing it is to be a part of the St. Isidore Community and to be able to reach beyond our walls and make a difference in our community.

PRAYER BLANKET MINISTRY

Prayer blankets & shawls are available at no cost in the church office.

"... throughout the year ahead, we will have many opportunities to love those with daily problems. If we turn our backs on the sick and the lonely, there is strong evidence that Christ has not made much difference in our lives. But if we reach out with compassion and understanding when opportunities arise, we can demonstrate the change that the manger Child has made, a change that God envisioned when He sent His supreme gift, Love, to earth..."

THE SPRINGHOUSE DAILY DEVOTIONAL BY FRED BAUER

Thank you to all who have donated hand-made blankets/shawls, money and gift cards to help our comfort ministry. We are so grateful to all who help us spread the love of Jesus by giving a blanket or shawl to a person who needs prayers and comfort.

Suggestion for 2020: As you read the bulletin, search the sick list for the name of anyone you know. Ask in the office if that person has been given a blanket or shawl. If not, choose one and personally deliver it. We have many testimonies from recipients who tell us how comforted they are with the gift of prayer and warmth. We ask that you share this ministry information with other parishioners. Thank you from the Comfort Crafters.

BABY PANTRY

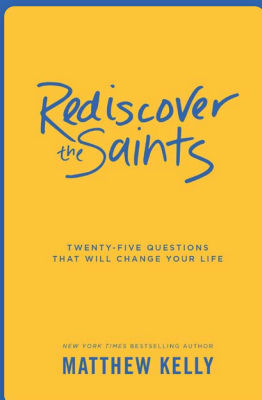

Many people have very little money and say persistent prayers to God that seem to go unanswered. God hears those requests, and, perhaps, sends us on the mission to fulfill those needs. If we hear a prompting from the Spirit to assist, that could be God answering those persistent prayers. As we help others, we strengthen our relationship with God.

"Do you want to do something beautiful for God? There is a person who needs you. This is your chance."

ST. MOTHER THERESA

Thank you for your help and support.

BOOK CLUB

Contemplating your New Year's Resolutions (or aren't but thinking you should be)? Add Rediscover the Saints Book Club to your list. While it's important to get in better physical, financial, emotional, educational shape, it's very important to get in better spiritual shape! Join us as we read about the saints, what shaped them and drove them to be the persons they ultimately became. Learn how they and their lives aren't any different from ours.

To join RSVP at the parish office (586-286-1700). Sessions currently scheduled for Thursday morning (9:00am - 10:30am) or Thursday evening (6:30pm - 8:00pm) session. Both sessions will run Thursday, January 16th - February 20th. (We are open to other dates/times if enough people are interested.)

Any questions can be directed to Beth Beebe at the parish office Ext 2116.

PAJAMA PROJECT

Foster care children are often left with nothing of their own when removed from their homes. To help ease the scariness of separation the S.I.T.E. Teens will be collecting pajamas and monetary donations in their Pajama Project.

Donations of new pajamas, sizes infant to preteen, will be welcomed before and after all Masses on Jan 25 & 26.

Please help S.I.T.E. aid children impacted by separation and change giving them a little something they can call their own.

Youth Ministry

The Archdiocese of Detroit is hosting the annual Martin Luther King Jr. Day of Service at Detroit's Sacred Heart Parish next Saturday, January 18.

The theme for the day is from the Gospel of Luke: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor." Youth ministers and youth from urban and suburban parishes are invited to participate.

Your gifts to the CSA make possible events like this, which keep youth engaged and active in their faith. Youth ministry is coordinated through the Department of Evangelization and Missionary Discipleship, along with young adult and campus ministry.
