THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

The Presentation of the Lord and Candlemas

Although the majority of us have long packed up our Christmas ornaments, the historical Christmas cycle extends past the Baptism of the Lord. Traditionally the feast of Candlemas (the Presentation of the Lord) occurs on February 2 and marked the final conclusion of the "Christmas cycle."

Candlemas celebrates an event that occurred 40 days after Jesus' birth and was his first introduction to the Temple. In other words, it is the final "baby Jesus" feast day on the Church's liturgical calendar.

Please bring your candles from home to be blessed prior to all weekend Masses for Candlemas on the weekend of February 2.

We bless our candles which represent the light of Christ so that we carry that light throughout the coming year. Candles from home as well as candles used in the church

@PONTIFEX

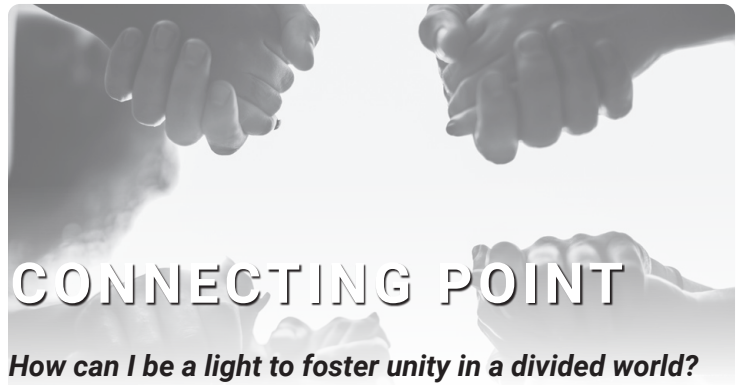

The Lord has so much compassion, He involves Himself in our problems. Let us often repeat this simple prayer: Lord, I am a sinner, have mercy on me, have compassion for me. #HomilySantaMarta are traditionally blessed on this feast day.

Christmas is a beautiful season of joy that doesn't end on December 26, but extends as far as February! May we all share the light and love of Christ throughout the New Year!

How can I be a light to foster unity in a divided world?

In the first and second readings this weekend there are two themes that jump out to me. In Isaiah, it is light in the darkness.

*The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light;
upon those who dwelt in the land of gloom
a light has shone.*

ISAIAH 9:1

In the second reading, St. Paul asks us to be unified.

*I urge you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree in what you say,
and that there be no divisions among you,
but that you be united in the same mind and in the same purpose.*

1 COR 1:10

We cannot deny the division that exists around us globally, nationally, and even in our own circles of friends, family, and coworkers. So how can we be a light that promotes unity when we encounter disagreements and division?

To me, it starts with being open-minded. Sometimes we enter into discussions with a set viewpoint or opinion. We are determined to convince the person on the other side that our way is the best and only way, and there can't possibly be another way of doing or thinking about things. However, it is in these moments that we need to first stop and try to understand from where the other person is coming. It is through this willingness to listen and change our own way of thinking that we can become unified. And doesn't it feel so much better when you leave a discussion unified rather than divided? It is also through this open-mindedness that we can then be seen as a shining light for others. So when you find yourself in these situations, pray for God's light to shine through you and to be more open-minded to new ideas.

Blessings,
- Matt Kush

PRAYER BLANKET MINISTRY

Prayer blankets & shawls are available at no cost in the church office.

To all who have comforted someone with one of our blankets or shawls, we give thanks to you from the recipients. The St. Isidore Comfort Crafters group has distributed over 400 items. Four hundred blankets/shawls that have been blessed at an 8:00 morning Mass have been given to relatives and friends needing comfort.

Our partnership of giving a crafted item is a special one created by faith, bonded by sacrifice, nurtured by love and blessed by God. We cannot fail if you remember to take a comfort blanket or shawl to someone who is suffering.

If you crochet, knit, or quilt, we can use your help. Our group meets at the church on Thursday mornings @ 11:00. Join us. It’s a great group of ladies who become good friends as we craft our blankets and shawls.

God’s great desire is for us to have a relationship of love with one another, to spend time with others, to get to know the hearts and minds of others. What else matters, except to give others the gifts of our prayers, time, attention, and love?

Thank you from the “Comfort Crafters.”

ROSARY MAKERS

St. Isidore Rosary Makers set a new high for 2019 by gifting 13,334 rosaries to military, local churches, schools, hospitals, and missions here and abroad. We gratefully receive generous funding from the Altar Society, Knights of Columbus, individuals, and Lesnau Printing Co. and family. Our members work from home assembling beaded or twine rosaries as time allows. We meet at 9:00 AM the first Tuesday of the month, and welcome new people to join our friendly group. Instructions and supplies are provided, no experience required. Any questions can be directed to Eileen Nowak at 586-286-0971. Anyone who would like a rosary may pick one up at the church office.

PAJAMA PROJECT

Foster care children are often left with nothing of their own when removed from their homes. To help ease the scariness of separation the S.I.T.E. Teens will be collecting pajamas and monetary donations in their Pajama Project.

Donations of new pajamas, sizes infant to preteen, will be welcomed before and after all Masses on Jan 25 & 26.

Please help S.I.T.E. aid children impacted by separation and change giving them a little something they can call their own.

DESERT MEAL THANKS

On January 11th, the K of C Council 7200 held their 6th Desert Meal Pasta Dinner Fundraiser in the social hall. Andrew Smith and Kevin Hufnagel, were this year's seminarians guest speakers. Their life experience and their answer to God's call to Vocations was very touching and wonderful to hear! These young men along with 20 of their classmates, will be traveling to the Holy Land in May after the conclusion of their Theology 1 studies. Approximately 100 people were in attendance and the evening was well received by all. We ask for your continued support and prayers, as these seminarians embark on their pathway to Priesthood. A special thank you goes out to those who attended, and to all who volunteered and helped make this event a success!
